

Old MacDonald Had a Bomb

Posted At : March 12, 2018 9:52 AM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: What Not To Do With UXO

Walters, Oklahoma An EOD team from Fort Sill responded to the Cotton County Sheriff's Office after a farmer dropped off a military UXO at the station. The parking lot of the sheriff's office and courthouse were evacuated and the area cordoned off as the team arrived to take possession of the round, believed to be a WWI smoke round. The farmer and others in the community were reminded to leave potential explosive devices in place and contact authorities.