

Accident at Naval School EOD Under Investigation

Posted At : September 15, 2021 2:35 AM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories:

Eglin AFB, Florida An explosive accident occurred at the Naval EOD school involving a contractor. Details of the explosion are under investigation but Navy officials did announce the accident occurred at the D-52 range, one of four demolition training areas at the school.

According to spokesperson for Eglin AFB, the contractor was airlifted to a medical facility and is in stable condition with non-life-threatening injuries. No students or staff at the school were injured. An investigation into the explosion's cause is underway.