

Police and EOD Respond to Munitions Cache Find

Posted At : March 31, 2014 6:38 AM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: What Not To Do With UXO

Gatineau, Canada Police responded to an anonymous call about military munitions stored in a vacant apartment building. Police responded to find a small cache of military-grade artillery shells. Canadian Forces EOD specialists were called in to safely remove and dispose of the munitions. The specific types of munitions involved was not reported. Authorities are investigating the incident to determine where the munitions originated from and who stored them in the vacant building.