

Fort Riley EOD Remove WWII Grenade from Building

Posted At : September 23, 2022 8:36 AM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: Unusual Munition Finds

Harrisonville, Missouri A portion of downtown Harrisonville has reopened after an old military munition was found inside a building that was under construction. The shutdown lasted several hours as the Kansas City Police Department's Bomb and Arson Squad evaluated the device.

EOD from Fort Riley were called in to confirm the ordnance was a WWII-era grenade. It was safely removed and disposed of by the team.