

Grenade Found During Construction on Site of Old Ordnance Depot

Posted At : March 13, 2022 12:26 PM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: UXO Discoveries

Suffolk, Virginia Construction workers dug up an old UXO while digging in an area that was once home to the Nansemond Ordnance Depot.

The Fire & Rescue Department, Virginia State Police Bomb Squad, and city police officers all responded. The bomb squad safely removed the UXO which was identified as an inert grenade.