The Dos Equis beer proclaimed "World's Most Interesting Man" has joined an international humanitarian effort to assist civilian landmine and bomb accident survivors in five countries. Actor Jonathan Goldsmith, internationally known for his adage, "Stay thirsty my friends," serves as an advisor and advocate in the ongoing effort to help landmine and UXO accident survivors and their families in Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, along the Thai-Burma border, and in Afghanistan. Goldsmith's efforts recently helped raise over $24,000 in donations to medical care, prosthetics, and scholarships in support of a recent fund raising campaign.
