Salina, Kansas Fort Riley EOD responded to a home after a man brought a 105 mm shell into a friend's home. The munition was given to the man to dispose of by the widow of a recently deceased man who had owned the item.

The man notified police after he realized the ordnance could possible be dangerous. Luckily for him and the six homes in the area which were evacuated as a result, it was inert. The response team disposed of the shell at the Smoky Hill bombing range.
