Kahului, Hawaii A Maui mall and the surrounding areas were closed when a 26-year-old man decided to place a hand grenade and mortar round in his vehicle to drive it to the Wailuku Police Station for disposal.

The man, who pulled over to alert police after having second thoughts about the safety of the UXO items, has been charged with second-degree reckless endangering.

An EOD team was notified and responded to remove the items for proper disposal. A 600-foot perimeter, was established and no incidents or injuries were reported.
