Pailin, Thailand One man was killed and two teenagers injured while cleaning UXO they found just past the border of Pailin, in Thailand's Chanthaburi province. A 27-year-old was killed instantly, and a 14 and 16-year-old were severely injured.

The three were working at a Thai market adjacent to the border, and for reasons unknown, had been walking in the heavily mined forest along the Thai-Cambodian border when they came across the UXO. They encountered the rocket and attempted to clean it, causing it to explode and leading to the casualties.
