

Roadside Grenade Sparks Concern in Philippines

Posted At : January 8, 2018 9:10 AM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: WWII Era UXO Finds

Pangasinan, Philippines Early commuters and those attending church services were surprised and worried when someone spotted a grenade by the roadside. Fearing the worst, civilians contacted local police. A SWAT-EOD team was assembled and dispatched to handle the situation. The team successfully removed what was identified as a WWII era MKII hand grenade to be safely disposed of off-site. Local police are investigating where the grenade may have come from.