

Home Construction Project Results in UXO Find

Posted At : November 12, 2018 4:13 PM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: UXO Discoveries

Te Puke, New Zealand A construction crew working on a residential construction project halted operations after finding a munition item. They called the police who responded and evacuated several nearby homes. The police contacted the New Zealand Defence Force bomb squad based in Auckland for technical assistance.

The bomb squad responded and safely removed the munition from the property for proper disposal.