

Campus Cannonball

Posted At : March 2, 2017 1:44 PM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: Civil War Era Munitions

Charleston, South Carolina 628th Civil Engineer EOD along with the Charleston Police Department safely recovered a cannonball from a construction site behind the College of Charleston science center. Following an x-ray of the munition, it was unclear whether or not the item still contained black powder, so the decision was made to safely dispose of the item through open detonation.

