

Search and Rescue Team Finds UXO

Posted At : June 22, 2020 6:03 AM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: WWII Era UXO Finds

Flyingdales, United Kingdom A search and rescue team practicing navigation skills found a WWII era round. The team took photos of the round and sent them to the North Yorkshire Police who in turn called out an EOD detachment based in Catterick.

EOD responded and coordinated an open detonation operation to safely dispose of the ordnance. The area where the team was conducting operations was reportedly a former WWII era gunnery range.