

Mortar Round Detected in Park is Detonated

Posted At : January 13, 2017 8:07 AM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: WWII Era UXO Finds

Jacksonville, Florida A piece of military ordnance was found by a Jacksonville parkgoer using a metal detector. The Jacksonville Sheriff's Office Bomb Squad responded to the call and identified the munition as a WWII era 60mm mortar. The item was properly disposed of through a controlled detonation procedure.