

Ordnance Is No Diamond in the Rough

Posted At : June 30, 2016 7:59 PM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: Souvenirs

Masterton, New Zealand Three businesses were closed following the discovery of a suspect live WWI shell in a jewelry store.

The Wairarapa Police responded to the scene where the shopkeeper found what was described as an old ordnance item while cleaning. Police notified the Army who sent an EOD team to respond.

The item was found to be an inert 18-pound shrapnel ordnance for light artillery. EOD removed the shell for disposal.