

Contractors Discover Tank Rounds in Ohio Home

Posted At : April 11, 2015 2:37 PM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: Souvenirs

Dayton, Ohio Bomb squads from the Dayton Police Department and Wright-Patterson Air Force Base were called to remove ordnance items found by a contractor installing insulation in a Dayton home.

The two 75 mm tank rounds, believed to be from the 1950s, were deemed potentially dangerous and safely removed and detonated. There is no word about how the UXO ended up in the home or how long it had been there.