Loogootee, Indiana The U.S. Attorney for Southern Indiana reports a federal grand jury has returned an indictment on Timothy L. Guy, 74, Loogootee, charging him with possession of stolen U.S. government property including over 10,000 rounds ammunition.

Guy had worked at the Army Ammunition Activity Center at Crane for 38 years. The munitions, allegedly stolen from work, were found in Guy's basement. Police as well as the ATF and the Crane EOD unit supported the removal and disposal of the ammunition.

If convicted, he faces up to 10 years in prison and a fine of $250,000 on each count. He is also facing a federal possession of child pornography count. That penalty is 20 years in prison and a $250,000 fine.
