

Ft. Belvoir EOD Remove Ordnance from Historic Building

Posted At : August 25, 2016 7:32 PM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: UXO Discoveries

Richmond, Virginia A construction crew uncovered a small cache of ordnance while rehabbing a historic building in Richmond. Workers contacted police after finding hand grenades and large-caliber ammunition.

The ordnance was estimated to be at least 30 years old. Because officials identified the items as military ordnance, an EOD team from Fort Belvoir was dispatched to respond. Area streets were shutdown during rush hour to allow for safe removal of the munitions.