

Canadian Military Removes WWII Mmunition from Home

Posted At : April 24, 2015 1:30 PM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: UXO Souvenirs

St. George, Canada Authorities evacuated nearby residents after a WWII-era munition was found during renovations of a St. George home. Police responded to the scene and consulted with Canadian military personnel who determined that the item presented no risk and safely removed it from the home.