

Mystery UXO - Activated Grenade Found on Canadian Roadside

Posted At : August 17, 2017 7:42 AM | Posted By : Admin

Related Categories: Unusual Munition Finds

Kamloops, Canada Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) responded to the site where what was believed to be a military smoke grenade had been activated, but failed to ignite. The item was treated as live ordnance, and the area was cordoned off while RCMP EOD safely disposed of the grenade. An investigation is underway to determine who discarded the grenade on the public road.

